

Biography

Evangelist Alonda Tucker was born January 6 in Newark, Delaware. She is the daughter of Pastor Tanya Tucker and Prophet Andrew Tucker; Pastors of Kingdom Life Church of Deliverance (located in Wilmington, Delaware) where she currently serves in ministry as a youth leader. Alonda's humble beginnings started at Holy Bethel the Church of God under the leadership and tutelage of Apostle Michael Bethel where she first received her foundation, knowledge of Christ, and ministry.

Growing up in church Alonda has played an active role, serving in various facets of ministry. Through the years she has served as a trustee, praise and worship member, choir member, nurse, and armor bearer. Wherever Alonda could serve in ministry she would. Evangelist Tucker has always had a call on her life to preach the gospel, and years later after much praying finally decided to fulfill that call in ministry. In August 2012 she preached her initial sermon entitled "I Have a Dream" at Parousia Temple of Praise and Deliverance.

Evangelist Tucker is a national and international preacher, having ministered in Turks and Caicos, on the islands of South Caicos, and Grand Turk. Having a heart for souls and bring deliverance to many, Minister Tucker was found faithful to the call of an Evangelist. August 2015, Alonda was ordained as such under the covering of Apostle Richard A. Kent Jr. (Overseer of Kingdom Life COD, and Momentum International Ministry of Churches).

Evangelist Alonda is Miss Black Delaware US Ambassador, a college graduate having graduated with a Bachelor's of Science degree in Marketing. And is currently enrolled to receive her Master's in Business Administration.

It is Evangelist Tucker's desire to preach the gospel and to compel people to come into the knowledge of Christ, to see them healed, set free, and delivered. She enjoys sharing her ministry gift with the people of God, helping to empower the "Now" generation and the "Next" generation and believes according to Romans 8:28 "That all things work together for the good of them that love the Lord..."
